11. (1) Every application presented by a debtor to a board shall contain the following particulars, namely :—

- (a) the place where he resides or holds land ;
- (b) the particulars of all claims against him together with names and residences of his creditors ;
- (c) the particulars of all his property, together with the specification of the value of such property and the place or places at which any such property is to be found ;
- (d) a statement that he is unable to pay his debts, and that they do not exceed the prescribed amount ;
- ²[(e) a statement whether he has previously filed an application in respect of the same debt before the same or another board, and if so, with what result.]

(2) Every application presented by a creditor shall contain the following particulars, namely :—

- (a) the place where the debtor resides or holds land ;
- (b) the amount and particulars of his claim against such debtor ;
- (c) a statement that the debtor is unable to pay his debts.

1. Substituted for the word "Provincial" by the adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

2. Added by Punjab Act VI of 1942, section 3-A.

12. (1) On receipt of an application under section 9 the board shall pass an order fixing a date and place for hearing the application :

Procedure on receipt of application.

Provided that the board may at any time dismiss the application if, for reasons to be stated in writing, it does not consider it desirable to attempt to effect a settlement between the debtor and the creditors.

(2) Notice of the order under sub-section (1) shall be sent to creditors by registered post, acknowledgment due, and where the debtor is not the applicant, notice of the order under sub-section (1) shall be sent to him in a similar manner.

13. (1) On the date fixed the board shall publish in such manner as may be prescribed, a notice, calling upon every creditor of the debtor to submit a statement of debts owed to such creditor by the debtor. Such statement shall be submitted to the board in writing within two months from the date of publication of the notice :

Notice calling upon creditors to submit statements of debts.

Provided that, if the board is satisfied that any creditor was for good and sufficient cause, unable to comply with such direction ¹[or to produce the documents required under sub-section (1) of section 14] within the time fixed, it may extend the period for the submission of his statement of the debts owed to him ²[or for the production of such documents].

³[(2) Every debt owed to a single creditor of which no such statement has been submitted to the board in compliance with the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be duly discharged for all purposes and all occasions against such creditor ; and every debt owed to two or more creditors jointly, of which such a statement or statements signed by all such creditors or their recognized agents has or have not been so submitted, shall be deemed to be so discharged against such creditors as have failed to submit the said statement or statements, but only to the extent of their respective shares in the said debt :

Provided that no such debts shall be deemed to be discharged against any creditors whose names have not been included in the application made under section 9.

1. Inserted by Punjab Act XII of 1940, section 5(a) (i).

2. Added by Punjab Act XII of 1940, section 5(a)(i).

3. Substituted for sub-section (2) of section 13 by Punjab Act XII of 1940, section 5(b).

(3) If the creditor or any of the joint creditors fails without sufficient cause to be present in person or by his recognized agent or legal practitioner in accordance with the provisions of section 24 at any of the hearings fixed by the board, or fails to produce full particulars and documents as required under sub-section (1) of section 14, the debt due to him or to the joint creditors, as the case may be, shall be deemed for all purposes and all occasions to have been fully discharged.

(4) If any creditor proves to the satisfaction of the board, or if no board is vested with jurisdiction by the '[State] Government, to the satisfaction of civil court, that the notice was not served on him and that he had no knowledge of its publication or that he was unavoidably absent at any of the hearings fixed by the board, the board or the court, as the case may be, may revive that debt.]

Procedure on submission of statements of debts.

14. (1) Every creditor submitting in compliance with a notice issued under sub-section (1) of section 13 a statement of the debts owed to him shall furnish, along with such statement, full particulars of all such debts, and shall at the same time produce all documents (including entries in books of account) on which he relies to support his claims, together with a true copy of every such document :

Provided that a decree or order of a civil court shall be conclusive evidence as to the amount of the debt to which the decree relates, but the amount may be reduced as the result of an agreement arrived at in accordance with section 17.

(2) The board shall, after marking for the purpose of identification every original document so produced and verifying the correctness of the copy, retain the copy and return the original to the creditor.

Board to attempt amicable settlement.

15. The board shall call upon the debtor and each creditor to explain his case regarding each debt, and shall use its best endeavours to induce them to arrive at an amicable settlement.

Power of Board to adjudicate on genuineness or enforceability
of debts.

²[15-A. (1) If a creditor or debtor, as the case may be, challenges the genuineness or enforceability of any debt included in an application, the board shall adjudicate upon the issue.

1. Substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

2. Inserted by Punjab Act XII of 1940, section 6.

(2) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the board under sub-section (1) may appeal therefrom to the Collector or such other officer, not below the rank of an Assistant Collector of the first grade, as the '[State] Government may appoint in this behalf.

(3) The period of limitation for an appeal under this section shall run from the date of the order appealed against and shall be thirty days.

(4) An appeal shall not lie from an order refusing to review or confirming on review a previous order.

(5) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, no appeal or application for revision shall lie against a decision of the board under sub-section (1) unless the aggregate value of the items in regard to which the appeal is preferred exceeds two thousand rupees.

(6) No order passed under this section shall be open to question in civil court.]

16. Any board empowered under this Act may exercise all such powers connected with the summoning and examining of parties and witnesses and with the production of documents as are conferred on civil courts by the Code of Civil Procedure, and every proceeding before the board shall be deemed a judicial proceeding.

Power of Board to require attendance of persons and production of documents and to receive evidence.

17. (1) If the debtor and all or any of the creditors come to an amicable settlement, the board shall forthwith reduce such settlement to writing in the form of an agreement setting forth the amounts payable to each creditor and the manner in which and the times at which they are to be paid. Such agreement shall be read out and explained to the parties concerned, and shall be signed or otherwise authenticated by the board and the parties : provided that if the board is of the opinion that the period fixed for payment is excessive, the board may refuse to authenticate the agreement. The board shall also pass an order dismissing the application so far as it relates to the creditors who have not come to an amicable settlement.

Registration and effect of agreement.

(2) An agreement thus made shall take effect as if it were a decree of a civil court having jurisdiction in the area of the Jurisdiction of the board.

1. Substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

¹[(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Registration Act, 1908, or in the rules made there under an agreement made under sub-section (1) shall not be liable to registration.]
